English Translation

I request help from Jesus and the sovereign Queen,to deliver these newlyweds at two in the morning. The parents of these newlyweds, this I am going to tell them, if I make any mistakes they should forgive me. This morning four roses came out of the church, the godfather, the godmother, the groom with the princess. And the father asked them-If you would be wed, say so, and the church heard them and both of them said -We do.
